PROPOSAL FORM

Submission Deadline: January 15, 2007

TWO TYPES OF SUBMISSIONS ARE INVITED

Panel or Workshop Presentation: 75 minute session consisting of one or more presentations. They can have a research or practice (intervention, program, collaboration) focus. Priority will be given to innovative research or practice that addresses intervention or prevention efforts for children living with domestic violence. Provide three copies of a 500 word abstract (double-spaced) of each presenter's paper, including two/three educational objectives for the presentation/session. In addition, please submit a 50 word description for the conference program. Abstracts should include the submission title, names of all presenters, and one contact person. Presentations with similar topics may be grouped together by conference directors to accommodate time and space limitations.

Please check if you are willing to present paper in a poster session.

Poster Presentation: Provide three copies of a 500 word abstract (double-spaced) and also a 50 word description for the conference program. Priority will be given to innovative research or practice that addresses intervention or prevention efforts for children living with domestic violence.
